The Urban Children Foundation's Mission

The Urban Children Foundation strives to provide Baltimore City non-profit and community-based organizations supplementary funding and material resources such as transportation, equipment, uniforms and participation fees for extracurricular activities including sports, music and other visual and performing arts. Every child should have the opportunity to access, participate and experience these activities.

Corporate Sponsorship

A variety of sponsorship levels are available for the UCF One Miler. To learn more about how you can support the race and help kids get access to extracurricular activities in Baltimore City, please email UCF at information@urbanchildren.org.
